The North West is ready for COP26

To mark the UK hosting the international climate conference, the North West will be hosting a programme of events in the region and at COP26 in Glasgow.

Activity will shine a spotlight on the region’s leading role in the UK reaching net zero and facilitate essential conversations on the action needed to tackle the climate emergency.

It will share the carbon stories of schemes already underway and showcase upcoming initiatives that can create a greener North West, seeking to create a lasting COP26 legacy.

GREEN ZONE EVENT

Taking place in the official green zone at COP26 in Glasgow, the event will bring North West Metro Mayors, Steve Rotheram and Andy Burnham, and North West leaders together with the innovators who have driven change over the past generation and those who are set to take on that mantle in the crucial decades to come.

This is a panel discussion in the green zone, which requires a COP26 ticket to attend.
